To order the new 2005 Edition of The Self-Help Support Group Directory

The only comprehensive statewide guide to community, national, & online support groups.

The 20th edition serves as a valuable, comprehensive resource for professionals and community leaders who assist people in obtaining the support, understanding, and assistance that mutual aid groups can offer. Published April, 2005, provides:

Contacts for over 4,500 self-help support groups in New Jersey with over 1,100 national, international, model, and online self-help groups. These groups cover an extremely broad range of illnesses, addictions, disabilities, bereavement, health issues, parenting, abuse, emotional problems, along with many other stressful life problems, and situations.

Expanded information on local and national websites, e-mail addresses, message boards, and e-groups. Over 95% of the national and international groups include their website, e-mail address, or both.

Includes over 400 state and national toll-free specialty helplines, local county helplines, over 350 state & national helplines, local psychiatric crisis hotlines. Provides 712 pages of information, complete with a comprehensive index, and "lay flat on your desk" binding.
